

User Reference Manual - Social Hour

This user's manual instructs users on how to operate the application. Individual elements are organized by larger function.

- Login
 - Click “Sign in” in button
 - Enter credentials, then login
- Dashboard
 - Click Events on live feed to view specific event details
 - The bottom left button redirects user to calendar interface
 - The bottom right button redirects the user to add event interface
 - Tabs at top allow for swiping of different application pages
- Add Event
 - Click eraser and pencil button to access add event page
 - Enter event name, event location as text inputs
 - Event can be set to “all day” or set the event start and end time with the parameters
 - User can change the privacy settings at the bottom of the event page
- Friends
 - List of friends appears here
 - Click a friend to view their user details
 - Button in bottom right can be selected to search for and add new friends
 - Can navigate through the rest of the interface by selecting the buttons in the header
- Groups
 - List of groups appears here
 - Click a group to view the user details within each group
 - Button in bottom right can be selected to search for and add new groups
 - Can navigate through the rest of the interface by selecting the buttons in the header
- Calendar
 - Each day on the calendar interface can be selected to see the specific events for that day
 - If there are events present, then they will appear below the calendar with the event details
- Settings
 - The settings page allows the user to edit their username with a text box
 - User can edit time display (12 or 24 hour)

- The user can select if they want Social Hour to integrate with Google Calendar
- The user can change the default privacy when creating a new event
- The user can sign out on the settings page